Ribbon Tab Borders Tutorial

Holly Brown filmed this pretty technique. The ribbons add texture and color that really complement the main image.

Supplies:

- 5" Assorted Ribbons
- Card base (5 1/2" x 4 1/4" used here)
- Narrow Image Panel (5 1/8" x 2 5/8" used here)
- Card base (5 1/2" x 4 1/4" used here)
- Red Line Tape or ScorTape
- Card base (5 1/2" x 4 1/4" used here)
- Pencil
- Ruler
- Scissors
- Foam Squares/Dimensionals (not pictured)

Step One:

Decide where the narrow image panel will be placed on the larger cardstock base.

Step Two:

Make pencil marks on card base 1/8" inside the top and bottom where narrow image panel will be placed. Make additional pencil marks 1/8" inside on the edge (left or right side) where the ribbons will be located.

Step Three:

Apply a strip of red line tape along the pencil marks.

Step Four:

Leaving the red liner in place, arrange ribbons as desired.

Step Five:

Carefully remove the red liner from the tape. Press the edge of the ribbon down into the tape. If ribbon is double-sided, be sure to turn the ribbon around so outside edge is pressed into the tape.

Step Six:

Apply two layers of red line tape over the top of the ribbon that was adhered.

Step Seven:

Remove the red liner from the tape and carefully fold ribbon over, pressing opposite edge into the tape.

Step Seven Continued

Step Eight:

Cut off any excess ribbon.

Step Nine:

Turn the narrow image panel over so the back is facing up. Apply foam squares to edge opposite of where ribbon tab border will be. Apply red line tape to the middle and the other edge of the narrow image panel. Remove liners from tape and foam squares. Adhere narrow image panel over the folded ribbon tabs.
